URGENT Press Release: Extortion of Money

We, the People Against Gangsterism and Drugs, PAGAD, greet you in the name of Truth, Justice and Peace.

The PAGAD Movement is disturbed by recent threats made to individuals in our community using the PAGAD name. Large amounts of money have been demanded with warnings and threats to the safety of the individuals and their families.

PAGAD condemns this type of action and categorically states that this type of threat goes contrary to the PAGAD code of conduct. We see this as an act of gangsterism and a direct attempt to stop the current cycle of growth and support that the PAGAD movement is currently experiencing. We further encourage anyone in the community who is being threatened in this way to report it to the police so that the perpetrators are brought to book.

We re-affirm our commitment to eradicating the scourge of gangsterism and drugs in all its forms and commit ourselves to defending this community from anyone who is intent on causing discord in our society.

Let's Expose the Culprits!
Help us STOP this type of Gangster Behaviour!

A MOTHER DID WHAT...?

On 12 September 2007, Ellen Pakkies of Lavender Hill strangled her 20-year old son to death with a rope. Her son, Adam, was unemployed and has been on dagga and then tik since he was 14 years old.

Yes, read the above paragraph again, and let the reality of it sink in!

The fact that her son was addicted to drugs had driven a mother, the most merciful of all creation, to do the unthinkable. It had caused her to take the life of a human being which she had brought into this world through her own womb.

This seems to go against the grain of nature itself because mothers (of all species) would usually protect their children with everything they've got...they would give their own life rather than to see any harm come to their child.

Ellen describes herself as a protective and loving mother.

What then, could have caused her to turn into a cold-blooded murderer of her own offspring? ...The Scourge of Drugs!

Lives are being destroyed in countless ways all over the world every single day, every hour and possibly even every minute because of this evil scourge!

Help stop it TODAY, and do your bit in the fight.

We offer our assistance to those who want to contribute towards building a strong and permanent movement against gangsterism & drugs.
